best. Thanks your to which you so kind left with me last week I am soon King - I have kept it so long

I must at once beg to offer you my Sincere & most-keen Conspiration, in the production of a work which must command a place in the front ranks of Educational Criticism.

You have lifted the question of Education out of that dismal fog, in which the Empiric has floundered & the poor little ones have suffered in body & mind, into an region of light. Hence you have formulated into a Science what hitherto has been for the most-part mere random attempts.

Your work will carry concept & blessing into every household & teacher, Especially in the homes of our great
'Middle Class' where so much is still to learn respecting the dignity of work.

& the duty of every one to qualify for some line of life in which to earn a living.

I have secured a copy & I need not say that it will be my pleasure & duty to urge my friends to do likewise.
May your able book meet with the success it so well deserves.
With best wishes & kindest

Dear Madam.

I fear I can be of no use to you in the matter of a drawing room meeting. We live 8 miles from Louth, in a purely Agricultural & therefore the thinly populated country & I have no neighbours within 15 miles.

I wonder which you call the "Children's Day" at Hull, as I do not

See it marked on the programme, but it has probably been a later addition.

In refusing to contribute any articles to Yr. Review, I know I am doing the kindest service!

My province can only lie in "the serving of tables" but anything I can do for you in those lines will always be a pleasure.

I see you speak at Hull on 1st Oct. If I have an opportunity I shall hope to make yr acquaintance.
I suppose you will be far too much occupied to make any use of my Lodgings 45 Park Street Hull

Walmgate,

North.

for either luncheon or tea.

It w^d give me great pleasure to make yr acquaintance.

Yrs v. truly

Owing to a change in plans at Balmoral, Carmen Sylva leaves I landed no this week & I shall not have the opportunity of bringing the Review to her notice, w^{ch} I regret, as she is v. enthusiastic in taking up any thing that appeals to her, as I think this w^{ch} have I me.

Dec. 4th

It was lovely & rare gift arrived Sat Evg - On Sunday after Church the Chaplain & our childⁿ & we all sat ~~and~~ loved the beautiful Photos W^h are quite new to us & were wonderfully appreciated - as they deserve to be. We all feel you have given us a possession - Dr. Foster at once said could we not have ~~these made~~ lantern slides made from them as he c^d then give his proposed Lecture on S. Francis for W? We are all waiting.

I must see what can be done but the Lady Poverty stops the way to all initiative pro tem.

I wish I c^d thank you personally for this lovely thought of our hearts needs here.

It was so dear of you to interpret what I should most like in this offering to our Dear Chapel. My husk[!] wants the Photos framed & hung in the passage between House & Chapel - but it is a snare

& I dare not expose them where they w^d fade. I am inclined to hang them in the Chapel itself but must wait & Consult the Architect.

How suggestive & beautiful these Photos are - I had no idea how full of thought they were.

This is only a line of very grateful thanks. I have my 2 big Grandchildren here - such Beloveds - but the boy is delicate & I think almost too good for a normal child -

Monday

I hope to wire from Manchester how my arrival at Lathes Tuesday & you will have a fly with steady horse ordered to meet me!

There is a glimmer of chance if you approve - that Miss Ada Behan may visit you with the Eric Barrington's on Friday & she whispers that if able

She w^d say the Speech in the Taming of the Shrew for W^m Dallas Forbes' Students - It is a wonderful offer - her health is so precarious, from terrible vertigo's that she is kept in cotton wool & no breath of wind allowed to disturb her - metaphorically - Engagements wait on all Sides both in Eng^l & America & she is forced to be still I learn patience -

I don't think we shall have the luck of getting her wonderful presence on Friday because the Vertigo's lay her low for days & she is just recovering from one - but she will come if she can - & they will sleep at Bowness -

only they come to take me back with them - I cannot well refuse. So if they don't come you will keep me a day longer.

à bientôt

Miss Kitching

3 Priory Gardens

Folkestone. 19th April

Dear Miss Kitching.

I am so glad you did not give Miss Mason my card. I had no idea she was so ill & yr letter fills me with anxiety for her precious health.

I do trust the present

Course of treatment may give her strength & that she may get safely to Hanheim & be spared to us all for years of future usefulness.

Please give her my love & tell her I have not written to her because I think it kindest to leave her in place. but I think much of her.

If I can get to London for the Conference week I shall much like to attend but my son has had an awful steeplechase accident a month ago & still is in a critical

State from brain injury.

He is going on well but I have not left him for a day for fear of his exerting himself & I do not know how long this may last.

Yrs. v. truly
